Duty to Avoid Unnecessary Costs of Service of Summons

Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires certain parties to cooperate in saving unnecessary costs of service of the summons and complaint. A defendant located in the United States who, after being notified of an action and asked by a plaintiff located in the United States to waive service of summons, fails to do so will be required to bear the cost of such service unless good cause be shown to its failure to sign and return the waiver.

It is not good cause for a failure to waive service that a party believes that the complaint is unfounded, or that the action has been brought in an improper place or in a court that lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action or over its person or property. A party who waives service of the summons retains all defenses and objections (except any relating to the summons or to the service of the summons), and may later object to the jurisdiction of the court or to the place where the action has been brought.

A defendant who waives service must within the time specified on the waiver form serve on the plaintiff's attorney (or unrepresented plaintiff) a response to the complaint and must also file a signed copy of the response with the court. If the answer or motion is not served within this time, a default judgment may be taken against the defendant. By waiving service, a defendant is allowed more time to answer than if the summons had been actually served when the request for waiver of service was received.

STATEMENT

Plaintiff Rickey Robinson-EL is granted leave to file his fourth amended complaint. Plaintiff alleges that he is compelled to attend religious services of non-indigenous Muslim groups because services for the Indigenous Washitaw Nation of Muurs are not provided at Stateville Correctional Center

Plaintiff will be allowed to proceed on his claims as to defendants Charles Peterson, George Adamson, Tammy Garcia, Ami Workman, Terry L. McCann, Jane Bularzik, Melody J. Ford, and Roger E. Walker, Jr.

However, Plaintiff will not be allowed to proceed against defendant Rod Blagojevich, the Governor of Illinois. Plaintiff does not assert that Governor Blagojevich was personally involved or associated with an unconstitutional policy or custom affecting Plaintiff. See Chavez v. Cady, 207 F.3d 901, 906 (7th Cir.2000) (supervisory officials may not be held liable for the unconstitutional conduct of their subordinates, unless the officials knew of and facilitated, approved, condoned, or turned a blind eye to the conduct). Defendant Rod Blagojevich is accordingly dismissed from this action.
